

Invitation to London Organisers' Network meeting

Workers centres & low wage workers:

organising at the bottom of the labour market

All welcome

Thursday 16 July 2009, 6pm

TUC Congress House, Great Russell Street, London WC1B 3LS

Speaker: Janice Fine

From 1981-83 Janice was the President of United States Student Association. During the 1980s, she worked for the AFL-CIO in Broward County, Florida, Massachusetts Fair Share in Boston. In the early 1990s, she worked for the Massachusetts AFL-CIO and the Massachusetts Building and Construction Trades Council. For ten years, until 2003, Janice was the Organizing Director at Northeast Action, the hub of a regional network of state wide progressive coalitions, unions and citizen action groups.

LON is an open, inclusive network for those committed to an organising approach to building the trade union movement. It is open to both full time union employees and union members regardless of union or political affiliation.

Can you please let us know if you intend to come along – it just helps in terms of ordering refreshments (beer and wine!) j.holgate@londonmet.ac.uk
