

Racist EDL not welcome in Bradford

Celebration of unity Saturday 28 August

Called by Bradford Unite Against Fascism
Supported by national UAF

- Celebrate our diversity
- Unity in the community

The racist English Defence League (EDL) is planning to turn up in Bradford, West Yorkshire, on Saturday 28 August.

They want to spread hatred and division in our multiracial, multicultural community and intimidate the Muslims who live here. Bradford has a proud tradition of unity against racism and fascism.

That's why we are asking you to join our celebration of unity against the EDL.

EDL thugs have been targeting Muslims and mosques in recent months, whipping up hatred, division and violence wherever they have been allowed to march.

In Dudley recently they attacked a Hindu temple and members of the public.

EDL supporters have been caught on camera giving Nazi salutes during their rallies and marches.

Our event will be a peaceful celebration of diversity and multi-culturalism.

Unite Against Fascism, along with local communities, will come together to celebrate the 'We Are Bradford' event and show the EDL racists that they are not welcome. Join us on 28 August and spread the word.
